Q11 What would make the new Riviera Beach Library a success to you?

Answered: 13 Skipped: 2

#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	Extended children's area	12/31/2017 8:52 AM
2	I would like it to be more friendly. The current "quietness" is prohibitive. Quiet rooms and separate areas for children is a good start.	12/28/2017 6:59 AM
3	Larger, wider selection of material. I would really enjoy books in several different languages so I can practice	12/26/2017 11:20 AM
4	I think it's already a success	12/25/2017 8:55 PM
5	I think overall it needs to be larger. There needs to be more study spaces. Dedicated spaces for teens/children.	12/21/2017 2:01 PM
6	A larger children's area, larger teen area, more computers and quiet spaces. I love the idea of an outdoor courtyard with comfortable seating and shady areas.	12/19/2017 6:56 PM
7	That it remains a friendly Community library. Not so large that I have to go looking for a staff member. I like the fact that a staff member is right at hand in the current building.	12/19/2017 5:46 PM
8	i think you covered the uses and therefore the cause for success in the questions you asked.	12/19/2017 5:38 PM
9	If possible having sensory story times on Saturdays at this location would be wonderful. However, not on the same days as the other sensory story times. Also, even more activities, like when you had the Star War crafts (this was spectacular!). These activities would be beneficial from 4pm to 7pm. In addition, activities for kids between the ages of 6-12. Maybe have a video "tournament". No cash or violent games, but bragging rights or a video game book/magazine. Any additional crafts parents or older siblings can do with kids. Finally, as a mom of a special needs child, could there be activities that are specific to this population as well as activities that are geared toward both special needs children and neuro-typical children. This will benefit both groups, as the special needs group will learn valuable social skills. While the neuro-typical kids will learn diversity. Thank you so much for your time and attention. My family and I consider the Riveria Beach library our home library. We eagerly await the renovations!	12/19/2017 4:54 PM
10	A warm, inviting space with lots of light and room to grow.	12/19/2017 11:55 AM
11	A bright and welcome space with lots of variety of materials, an interactive children's area	12/19/2017 10:09 AM
12	Larger. More books.	12/17/2017 1:57 PM
13	A wider selection of reading material.	12/16/2017 6:04 PM
